

College/Career Readiness

(Characteristics of Highly Effective Teaching & Learning)

- Learning Climate
- Content Knowledge
- Classroom Assessment
- Instructional Rigor/Student Engagement
- Instructional Relevance

- Balanced Assessment
- Professional Learning & Application
- Kentucky Core Academic Standards
- Leadership

These "pillars" are the elements that support or upon which we, as teachers, "build" our instructional structure. Some pillars are intentionally empty, so our learning communities have some ownership - based upon their learning and practice - about what pillars contribute to the development of a sturdy structure.